You are interested in ever pursuing a University or recovery. A variety of resources available to you to assist in your recovery.

---

Dean of Students, Camden Campus
Sybil James, Esq.
856-250-1181.

Jeffrey Broggi
Sandra Castro
848-932-7200

Dean of Students
New Brunswick
Dr. Michelle Jefferson
848-973-7174

Department of Families & Children
Sexual Violence Programs in NJ, by county
http://vpva.rutgers.edu/

CONFIDENTIAL RESOURCES:
Faculty and Staff Counseling
Office for Violence Prevention and Victim Advocacy
CAMDEN
60 South Fullerton Ave, Montclair, New Jersey 07042

Newark, New Jersey 07103
St. Michael's Medical Center

If any of these Centers are closed, call the RHS
*Psychological Services
Office for Violence Prevention and Victim Advocacy.

SAFE (7233)
TALK (counseling, crisis intervention) Services available 24/7:
Confidential counseling for faculty and staff.

---

An advocate's role is to:
ASSISTANCE
CONFIDENTIAL RESOURCES:
http://www.co.middlesex.nj.us/Government/
732-5700
732-5934
732-5934

---

Assure that the survivor is aware of and proceeds, and university relations, and 24/7 crisis and during any medical or legal process.

---

Rutgers is concerned about the safety and well-being of its students, and it provides a range of support services to help students who may be experiencing distress or crisis. These services are available 24/7 and are confidential, allowing students to receive assistance without fear of jeopardizing their academic or personal progress.

---

Sexual misconduct includes, but is not limited to:
activity received federal financial assistance.

---

TITLE IX COORDINATORS
Camden: 856-250-1181.
Cheryl McGlynn, Coordinator for Students Housing and Residence Life, Deputy Title IX Coordinator for Students
848-973-9135
326 Penn Street
Camden, Office of Disability Services
848-973-5671

An advocate's role is to:
ASSISTANCE
CONFIDENTIAL RESOURCES:
http://www.co.middlesex.nj.us/Government/
732-5700
732-5934
732-5934

---

Consider these options to file a complaint:

1. Internal Complaint:
   - To file a complaint against a student, contact the University's Title IX Coordinator.
   - To file a complaint against a faculty member or staff member, contact the Office of Disability Services.
   - To file a complaint against a university official, contact the Office of the Camden County Prosecutor.

2. External Complaint:
   - To file a complaint against a non-university official, contact the National Center for Education Rights.
   - To file a complaint against a non-university official, contact the U.S. Department of Justice and the Office of the Camden County Prosecutor.

---

Sexual misconduct includes, but is not limited to:
activity received federal financial assistance.

---

Rutgers is concerned about the safety and well-being of its students, and it provides a range of support services to help students who may be experiencing distress or crisis. These services are available 24/7 and are confidential, allowing students to receive assistance without fear of jeopardizing their academic or personal progress.

---

Sexual misconduct includes, but is not limited to:
activity received federal financial assistance.

---

Rutgers is concerned about the safety and well-being of its students, and it provides a range of support services to help students who may be experiencing distress or crisis. These services are available 24/7 and are confidential, allowing students to receive assistance without fear of jeopardizing their academic or personal progress.

---

Sexual misconduct includes, but is not limited to:
activity received federal financial assistance.

---

Rutgers is concerned about the safety and well-being of its students, and it provides a range of support services to help students who may be experiencing distress or crisis. These services are available 24/7 and are confidential, allowing students to receive assistance without fear of jeopardizing their academic or personal progress.