Maximum Allowance

- Sometimes called single-life annuity

 - Maximum benefit stops at your death
 - No pension benefits are payable to your survivors
- If you die before receiving your retirement allowance, paid to your beneficiary is:
 - The amount you paid into the retirement system while actively working,
 - Balance of your contributions and Interest

Alternatives to the Maximum Allowance

- All other options may provide a benefit to your beneficiary after you die
- By taking an option, you may reduce your own monthly retirement allowance

“Pop-up” Options A,B,C, and D

- Upon your death your beneficiary will receive a lifetime monthly pension
- If your beneficiary predeceases you, your retirement allowance will “pop-up” to the Maximum Allowance
- The percentage of reduction is based on:
 - Life expectancies of you and your beneficiary
 - The option you select (A,B,C, or D)
 - Younger beneficiary = greater benefit reduction
 - Older beneficiary = less benefit reduction
- Beneficiary must be an individual
- Beneficiary can never change after retirement

“Pop-up” Options (cont.)

- Option A - 100% to the beneficiary or increases to the maximum allowance
- Option B - 75% to the beneficiary or increases to the maximum allowance
- Option C - 50% to the beneficiary or increases to the maximum allowance
- Option D - 25% to the beneficiary or increases to the maximum allowance

Option 1

- At retirement, amount the State expects to pay in lifetime benefits is set aside as a retirement reserve
- If your beneficiary predeceases you, your benefit does not increase
- If reserve has been exhausted at your death, no benefits will be paid to your beneficiary
- If any remaining balance remains at your death, it will be paid to your beneficiary
- You may name more than one beneficiary for this option and you may change at any time
- Beneficiary can be a person, charity, institution, or your estate

Options 2 and 3

Option 2

- Sometimes called 100% joint and survivor annuity
- If beneficiary predeceases you, your benefit does not increase
- Retirement benefit calculation based on your age and age of your beneficiary
- Beneficiary must be an individual
- Beneficiary can never change after retirement

Option 3

- Sometimes called 50% joint and survivor annuity
- If beneficiary predeceases you, your benefit does not increase
- Retirement benefit calculation based on your age and age of your beneficiary
- Beneficiary must be an individual
- Beneficiary can never change after retirement

Option 4

- If your beneficiary is living at the time of your death, your beneficiary will receive a specified monthly allowance for the duration of his/her life
- If your beneficiary predeceases you, your benefit does not increase
- Beneficiary allowance cannot be more than your own allowance
- You can name one or more beneficiaries
- Beneficiary can never change after retirement
